Dear Examiner Chen,

In response to your request, we are writing to confirm that our firm, DLA Piper Rudnick Gray Cary US LLP is not handling application serial number 10/662,560. Based on information you provided to us, it appears that Dean Nakamura, Esq. mistakenly listed application serial number 10/662,560 rather than 10/622,560 on several papers he attempted to submit while he was a member of Gray Cary, a law firm that has since become a part of DLA Piper Rudnick Gray Cary US LLP. Mr. Nakamura left Gray Cary before Gray Cary became a part of DLA Piper Rudnick Gray Cary US LLP, and upon information and belief he is prosecuting application 10/622,560 at his new firm. Our firm (DLA Piper Rudnick Gray Cary US LLP) has no involvement with either 10/622,560 or 10/662,560 and therefore has no information on either of these applications. We hereby consent to the removal of the mistakenly mailed documents from application number 10/662,560, but cannot authorize the filing of these documents in application 10/622,560 because we are not the attorney of record in that application. We respectfully request that the USPTO contact Mr. Nakamura and look to him for additional guidance. Mr. Nakamura's contact information is listed below.
